PART OF THE BATTLEFIELD AT NEUVE CHAPPELLE
The picture shows a line of blasted trenches which were hastily thrown up by the British after their charge, taken by the Germans, and then retaken by the British. Every living plant and thing has been swept off the earth by the devastating fire.

FAR FROM THE NATIONS' IGNOBLE STRIFE
A pleasing contrast to the scenes of war from Europe. The Rev. W. H. Kavanagh watching his flags grow at St. James' Episcopal Church, 52d and Master streets.

WHAT THE NEWLYWEDS FOUND AWAITING THEM
Miss Bessie F. Simpkins, of Bridgeton, N. J., recently became the bride of Arthur Treffinger, of Quakertown, Pa. When they arrived at their new home, they found friends had been there first with an array of old shoes, as well as numerous and appropriate signs.

BABY LLAMA IS SPRING ARRIVAL AT THE ZOO
The census is constantly being boosted these days at the menagerie in Fairmount Park. Keepers are kept busy preparing cradles and heating the milk for the fresh descendants of famous old forest families. This youngster comes from one of the first families of Peru.

EXERCISE IS GOOD FOR THE BABY
The newest bear baby at the Zoo, in Fairmount Park, tries his climbing muscles on the bars of his mother's cage and peers out.
